Alison Davis is the owner of Ardlaggan, the property the adapted course starts outside. She has been very generous and welcoming in allowing us to use the space at her gates for the start area. Furthermore, she has offered the use of the bathroom at the front of her house for riders who may need to take a pre-race natural break. DO NOT do this anywhere else. Alison will also make a track pump and allen keys available for any last-minute issues. Alison is great – be nice to her – please respect her property and her generosity.
