

HAYLEY SIMMONDS

SAYS NO

TO DOPING

All riders have the right to compete in cycling knowing that they, and their competitors, are clean.

The use of performance-enhancing drugs and other doping behaviour severely damages the legitimacy of cycling and undermines the integrity of clean riders. The anti-doping principle of strict liability means that a rider is responsible for their conduct, the decisions they make and the results of any test they undergo regardless of whether or not they intended to cheat.

It is therefore vital that all riders conduct themselves within the rules and make informed decisions to ensure they race clean. Hayley Simmonds does, do you?
